Enjoy The Journey Coaching

"I am an ordained minister with the Potomac Ministry Network of the Assemblies of God and have served in ministry leadership for over 34 years. I am also an ICF-credentialed leadership coach who understands the crucial need for leaders and leadership teams to be developed, coached, and challenged so that they can lead courageously and cast a global vision of change, resiliency, and stability. It is with this thought in mind that I strongly recommend Modesta Mahiga as an executive coach for your organization.

As a coach and leadership consultant, Modesta listens deeply, becomes a strategic thought partner, and instills confidence through her leadership presence. Modesta has a way of instilling a sense of purpose in anyone she works with. She calls out the best in others and their teams and is not timid to challenge what is not conducive for growth."

Naetwe Seushi

Commercial Manager,
Thamani Projects
DRA Global

"I am really thankful for such a good, prompt and professional service that I got from Modesta Mahiga. We worked together on developing my CV and she was able to capture and visualize my career journey without leaving any stone unturned.

At the end of the day, it represented me very well and I was able to get the job opportunity that I was seeking.

This service is highly recommended to anyone who has an idea of what his/her CV should look like but doesn't have the right words, tools, or format.

Thank you, Modesta, it was a pleasure working with you.
